2007 WVIAC FOOTBALL PREVIEW

(PRINCETON, W.Va.)-Three-time defending WVIAC football champion Shepherd University is the heavy favorite to defend their title in a vote of league coaches. The Rams, winners of their past 23 league contests, received eight of nine first place votes to easily top the pre-season balloting.

Glenville State placed second in the voting, while West Liberty State was third. The University of Charleston grabbed one first place vote to hold down the fourth spot. Fairmont State, Concord, West Virginia State, and West Virginia Wesleyan are in the fifth through eighth positions. WVIAC newcomer Seton Hill ended up in the final spot. The Griffins are playing a full conference schedule, but are not eligible for the championship.

Shepherd (11-1, 7-0) returns 13 starters from a squad that reached the NCAA Division II quarterfinals and finished eighth in the final coaches' poll. Running back Dervon Wallace accounted for 1300 yards and 17 touchdowns in 2006 and is poised for another big year with four returning offensive linemen.

The Rams must replace quarterback Dan Chlebowski, but Tyler Lazear earned valuable experience last season. Lazear completed 50 of 87 passes for 522 yards and six touchdowns. Mark Springirth (38 rec.) and Craig Tremel (30 rec.) should be the top targets in the SU passing game.

All-time WVIAC and NCAA Division II career interception leader Dan Peters has departed from a Ram defense that led the country in points per game in 2006. The Rams only gave up 88 points in a dozen contests and held their first eight foes to a touchdown or less. DL Michael Spielgelberg, LB Lewis Corum, and LB Joey Hooks should help Monte Cater's squad field their traditionally strong defense.

Glenville State (5-6, 4-3) hopes to climb up the WVIAC ladder after finishing in sole possession or in a tie for second place during the past four seasons. The Pioneers look to rely on a stingy defense in 2007 that is paced by the linebacker duo of Jacquez Taylor (81 tackles) and Jacob Lilly (87 tackles). Defensive back Troy Cloud rates as one of the league's fastest players.

Four of five offensive line starters are back for head coach Alan Fiddler. Senior Jason Atteberry (6-4, 300) heads up the bulky Pioneer offensive front. TE Emery Williams and RB Jared Dearing are among the top returning skill position players for GSC.

West Liberty State (7-4, 4-3) posted their second straight winning mark for head coach Roger Waialae in 2006. Things are still looking up in the Northern Panhandle as 17 starters return on the hilltop.

The Toppers must find someone to fill the shoes of the all-conference passing combination of Jay Guillion to Renard Stevens. The cupboard isn't bare with the likes of RB Eddie Hills (1105 rush yds) and WR Almonzo Banks (67 rec, 977 yds) still on hand.

All-American defensive back Darren Banks was second in Division II in 2006 with ten interceptions and will key the Hilltopper stop troops.

Charleston (5-6, 4-3) continues their building program under third year head coach Tony De-Meo. The Golden Eagles are another contender that must replace their signal caller as four-year starter Corey Isner exits. WR Terrance Spencer (60 rec.) and RB Josh Culbertson (570 rush yds) provide a foundation for UC's attack.

LeDominique Williams (90 tackles) and Antonio Smith (81 tackles) are a productive duo for the Charleston defense.

Fairmont State (4-7, 3-4) ended 2006 with the momentum of back-to-back season-ending victories. The bad news is that the Falcons' all-time leading rusher, Wendell Johnson, isn't among 15 returning starters. All-WVIAC offensive lineman Kyle Robinette hopes to provide junior quarterback John Rahl (88-200-14, 1166 yds) with plenty of time to pass.

Bookends Brandon Geary and Jacob Owens are the linchpins of the Falcon defensive line, along with tackle Jesse Valentine. Outside linebacker Shahram Shafii (77 tackles) earned All-WVIAC first team mention in 2006. DB Matt Vujaklyia was a special teams demon with a pair of blocked kicks last season.

The league's most interesting position changes will take place at Concord (3-8, 3-4). Standout wide receiver Dustin Greenwood will make the switch to quarterback as the Mountain Lions move to a spread option attack. The senior rushed for 232 yards in a loss to nationally ranked North Greenville in his only start under center last season. TE Ron Buskey gives Greenwood a big target.

CU also has an impact position change on the defensive side of the ball as Marshall transfer Tank Tunstalle will be at linebacker. Defensive back Ola Adams notched 93 tackles in 2006 and picked off three passes.

Head coach Earl Monroe infused a new attitude at West Virginia State (5-6, 2-5) last season and the Yellow Jackets look to continue the improvement in 2007. Five starters will be back on each side of the ball for the Jackets.

Two-sport standout Kevin O'Brien passed for 1897 yards as a rookie and helped the Jacket baseball team to a league crown. WR Jayson Moore was O'Brien's favorite receiver in 2006 with 29 catches. DB Brandon Truesdale (81 tackles) and LB Mark Stolle (105 tackles) lead what is anticipated to be a stubborn defense.

West Virginia Wesleyan (2-8, 1-6) suffered through a rough 2006 under veteran head coach Bill Struble. WR/KR Bryan Overton (335 rec. yds) led Division II in kickoff returns and is a big play threat from anywhere on the field. Fellow senior Alex Puente (18 rec.) should pair with Overton to comprise a strong receiving corps. LB Donovan Godwin (13 TFL) is the top returning defensive player for the Bobcats.

Seton Hill (2-9) looks to take a big leap forward in the program's third season. 20 starters are back on hand for the Griffins, including all eleven on offense. RB Antwarr Jones rambled for 902 yards as a rookie last season. Linebackers Mark Hartz (89 tackles) and Rob Ellis (85 tackles) are the keys on defense. Defensive lineman Jarrett Highsmith contributed nine sacks.

Did You Know?

--Only two successful field goals were made during the 1959 grid season. Bluefield State's Jim Scott booted the season's longest three-pointer from a mere 12 yards out! Unbelievably, 1959 was the decade's busiest year for kickers. WVIAC booters only made six field goals during the entire decade in those days before the advent of soccer style kickers.

THE NORTHEAST REGION

The West Virginia Conference will compete within the Northeast Region during the 2007 season. The NCAA realigned the regional structure in 2004 as part of increasing the Division II playoff field from 16 to 24 squads.

The Northeast Region contains the WVIAC, the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference, and the Northeast-10 Conference. Six playoff spots will be allotted from all four regions across the country (Northeast, South, Northwest, and Southwest) for a total of 24 bids into the NCAA Division II Football championship.

2004 introduced "earned access" into the Division II football lexicon. Earned access assures any league with a team in the final regional top ten of a playoff spot. The highest ranked squad in a conference receives earned access regardless of conference standing.

The regional rankings are compiled by the NCAA Division II Football Committee with assistance from the Northeast Region Advisory Committee. Each conference within the region has two members of the RAC.

Bloomsburg was last season's regional champion as the Huskies took victories over West Chester and Shepherd. WVIAC champion Shepherd earned the top seed and downed Merrimack (MA) 31-7 before dropping a 24-21 decision to Bloomsburg in the regional finals. The Rams were the lone ranked WVIAC squad in the final 2006 Northeast Regional rankings.

PRESIDENT'S & COMMISSIONER'S CUPS

The West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference annually awards the President's and Commissioner's Cups to recognize all-around athletic excellence among its member schools. The University of Charleston won both awards for the first time in school history following 2006-07 titles in women's tennis, volleyball, men's golf, and softball.

The President's Cup is awarded to the school that has the highest average score for sports sponsored within the WVIAC. Points are awarded based on finishes in the regular season of each sport. Scoring of WVIAC sports is a reflection of the number of teams participating for that championship.

The Commissioner's Cup is awarded to the institution with the highest cumulative score as determined by a scoring method used by the league. Points are awarded based on the school's finish after completion of each of the sports sponsored by the WVIAC.

Did You Know?

---The WVIAC was the only NCAA Division II league to place a team in the national football quarterfinals, the men's basketball Elite Eight, and the D-II Baseball World Series during the 1998-99 academic year.
 ---Three current Division I institutions are former league members. West Virginia and Marshall were charter members, while Morehead State was a member from 1929 to 1932. The Eagles were the last non-West Virginia school to be a league member until the admission of Pitt Johnstown and Seton Hill in 2006. The Mountaineers departed in 1927 and the Thundering Herd exited in 1949.

The WVIAC

I chose
Division II

Founded in 1924, the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WVIAC) rates as one of the oldest leagues at the small-college level. The 16-member conference currently boasts the largest membership of any NCAA Division II league.

The current membership includes Alderson-Broadus College, Bluefield State College, University of Charleston, Concord University, Davis & Elkins College, Fairmont State University, Glenville State College, Ohio Valley University, Salem International University, Shepherd University, West Liberty State College, West Virginia State University, West Virginia Wesleyan College and Wheeling Jesuit University. The University of Pittsburgh at Johnstown and Seton Hill University joined the WVIAC for the 2006-07 season. Pitt Johnstown and Seton Hill are the WVIAC's first out-of-state members since 1932.

The WVIAC moved into the NCAA Division II ranks in 1994 after a long affiliation with the NAIA. The conference was the only one in Division II to place a team in the national quarterfinals in men's basketball, football and baseball during the 1998-99 academic year. In 2002 the WVIAC, along with two other conferences, became the first league to earn four bids to the NCAA Division II Men's Basketball Championship.

WVIAC student-athletes have been celebrating championships since 1924. Above is Fairmont State and legendary coach Joe Retton enjoying their 1975 men's basketball title

Commissioner Barry Blizzard, who has held the post since 1987, led the move into the NCAA. Blizzard, a native of Bramwell, West Virginia, previously served as the athletics director at Bluefield State. The long-time conference chief has served in a variety of national leadership positions, including a stint as president of the Division II Conference Commissioners' Association. He is currently the chairman of the NCAA Division II Nominating Committee.

Alumni of conference members include West Virginia State's Earl Lloyd (the first African-American to play in the National Basketball Association), Salem International's Cecil Underwood (two-term West Virginia governor) and Wheeling Jesuit's John Beilein (current Michigan men's basketball coach).

The conference's basketball tournament is one of the longest-running events in collegiate hoops; the 70th annual event was held earlier this year at the Charleston Civic Center. Attendance at the WVIAC tournament ranks among the highest in Division II. The conference also boasts a 10-station radio network for the tournament.

Women's sports were incorporated into the WVIAC during the 1981-82 academic year as the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Association was absorbed. Currently, women's championships are offered in softball, golf, tennis, track, basketball, volleyball, cross country and soccer.

Men's championships are conducted in football, cross country, soccer, basketball, baseball, golf, tennis and track.

The league was recognized by the State Journal as one of "55 Great Things About West Virginia" in the magazine's April edition. The WVIAC is headquartered in Princeton, W.Va.
